On December 10, 1948, The United Nations Publishes the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Time past 74 Years Human Rights Situation Today In The World There Are Still Too Many Countries Violating Human Rights.

Considering that the recognition of the equal dignity and rights of all humanity throughout the world is a fundamental foundation to be freely respected and enjoyed.

Considering that Member States have signed a commitment with the United Nations to strictly implement the contents of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights and regard the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a Code of universal validity, for nations all over the world.

Considering that there is no single country, institution, or government state that deprives people of their values of dignity, morals, freedoms, and human rights arbitrarily or violates the norms and standards set forth in the Constitution. Universal Declaration of Human Rights of 1948.

Considering that the Communist state of Vietnam has voluntarily signed a commitment to fully implement the contents of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 and was elected to the Human Rights Council in 2022. But human rights violations by the state of Communist Vietnam after 1975 until now for nearly 47 years has a more serious and sophisticated dangerous and brutal nature.

Considering that Communism has been the perpetrator of human rights violations against all of humanity more 100 years. Communism robbed, raped, and murdered more than 100 million people worldwide,

Council of Peoples and Religions of Vietnam (CPRVN) Calls on member states of the United Nations Council to have a convention strong enough to protect liberal values through the content of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 and sanctions against individuals, organizations, or member states for human rights violations.

The Council of Peoples and Religions of Vietnam (CPRVN) opposes a number of countries that regularly violate human rights such as: Communists, Russia, Vietnam, China, Peru, Venezuela, Chile, Belarus, Moldova, Cuba, North Korea, Laos...!

The Council for Ethnic and Religious Affairs of Vietnam (CPRVN) highly appreciates the content of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights on fundamental liberal values in the international terminology of Human Rights.

The Council for Ethnic and Religious Affairs of Vietnam (CPRVN) affirms that: God created man with all things in this universe and has bestowed all things on man with full values of freedom. Therefore, people and things can legitimately enjoy the values of freedom (Human Rights) without any national or state organization having the right to deprive or violate them.

The values of freedom and human rights must be respected, enforced, and protected as an invaluable asset of all humanity.

Peace and Grace
